Location/Description

The property is a terraced three storey over basement building of rendered brick construction with the subject comprising ground floor former banking hall with ancillary offices and stores plus cellar storage. In addition there is a rear car park with secure barriers accessed from Towbury Lane with the significant benefit of the use of four car parking spaces in a shared parking area at the rear of the property.

The property we understand is not listed but it is located in a Conservation Area with elevated double bay frontage windows, mainly open plan ground floor banking hall and showroom/offices with both front customer entrance and rear level access off the car park.

Nearby and adjacent occupiers include Co-op Supermarket (opposite), Post Office, Waitrose Food Store, Ten Hands Café (next door), Sponne Shopping Centre and the subject is directly opposite the Town Hall.

Accommodation

The property comprises the following;
